ABOUT ME

Hi, I'm Arturo D. Marte Jr. II, a dedicated fourth-year student at Quezon City University with a strong passion for programming. I have a solid foundation in several programming languages, including Java, C#, and Visual Basic, but my expertise lies primarily in JavaScript. I've delved deeply into various JavaScript frameworks, such as Node.js, React.js, Redux, and Next.js, honing my skills in both frontend and backend development.
